PROFILE

MUSIC DIRECTOR

Born in Beirut, Lebanon, Fouad Fakhouri hails from a musical family whose roots go back four generations. He holds a Doctor of Musical Arts in Composition from the University of North Texas, and a Master of Music in Orchestral Conducting, as well as a Master of Music in Composition/Theory from the Pennsylvania State University. He earned his Bachelor of Music in Theory and Composition from West Texas A & M University.

With over two decades of international credits as a conductor and composer, Fakhouri is committed to actively engaging with audiences through powerful artistic experiences. Known for his “musical accuracy” and “emotional intensity,” his performances have been celebrated for their broad, dynamic, and powerful interpretations, which go beyond the score to capture both the essence and spirit of the music. In June 2016, after a year and a half long international search, Fakhouri was named Music Director of the Saginaw Bay Symphony Orchestra in Michigan. From 2004 – 2016 Fakhouri served as Music Director and Conductor of the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra (North Carolina). In 2009 he was appointed Principal Guest Conductor of the Greensboro Symphony Orchestra (North Carolina) and was also Music Director and Conductor of the Greensboro Symphony Youth Orchestra where he led the orchestra on its first international tour to Austria and Germany.

Among his many recent international guest-conducting appearances are the Lebanese Philharmonic Orchestra (Lebanon), Cairo Symphony Orchestra (Egypt), and the Bulgarian Symphony Orchestra (Sophia, Bulgaria). In addition to conducting, Fakhouri is an active composer of a multitude of symphonic, chamber, choral, and solo music. His works have been premiered and performed by the English Chamber Orchestra (UK), the Bulgarian Symphony Orchestra, the Mediterranean Orchestra (Italy), and the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra to name a few.

In December 2014 in recognition of “his impressive career achievements, phenomenal leadership of the Fayetteville Symphony Orchestra (FSO), and dedication to music and the community” Methodist University (NC) bestowed upon him an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters. In March 2016 he was inducted into the Fayetteville (NC) Music Hall of Fame and in April 2016, upon the completion of a highly successful 11-season tenure with the FSO, individual donors honored him with establishing “The Fouad K. Fakhouri Endowment for Artistic Excellence” – a $1.1 million fund. Fakhouri resides in New York City with his wife Diane Lavelle, an advertising executive, and their daughter Isabella.

MUSIC DIRECTOR

Michigan-based conductor, Jeremiah Kraniak, currently serves as the Artistic Director/Conductor of the Saginaw Choral Society; an 85 member, auditioned community chorus in Saginaw, MI. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Education from Saginaw Valley State University and a Masters of Music in choral conducting from Central Michigan University. Prior to studying choral music, Mr. Kraniak spent six years studying solo and orchestral flute. As a tenor, he studied voice under Dr. Julie Meyer. He has been a featured soloist with the Saginaw Choral Society under the batons of Mr. Robert Sabourin and Dr. Glen Thomas Rideout. As a conductor, Mr. Kraniak has worked with GRAMMY® award-winning singer, Sylvia McNair, Kevin Cole, and Katie Travis (Christine Daae, National Tour of Phantom of the Opera).

In the fall of 2015 Jeremiah accepted a graduate assistantship at Central Michigan University to pursue a Masters of Music in choral conducting under the mentorship of Dr. Nina Nash-Robertson. As a conductor, he has prepared choirs for Dr. Kevin Simons, Dr. Glen Thomas Rideout, Dr. Nina Nash-Robertson, and Maestro Fouad Fakhouri. In June 2017 he prepared a group of singers to perform Vaughan Williams Dona Nobis Pacem at Carnegie Hall in New York City.

Jeremiah Kraniak, Music Director

Jeremiah served as the assistant choral conductor at the annual Baroque on Beaver music festival on Beaver Island. His choirs have shared the stage in collaborative performances with the Saginaw Bay Symphony Orchestra, the Saginaw Valley State University choirs, and Central Michigan University School of Music. He has participated in conducting symposiums led by Dr. Jerry Blackstone and Dr. Julie Skadsem of the University of Michigan, Dr. Daniel Bara of the Hugh Hodgson School of Music at the University of Georgia, and noted conductor/composer Z. Randall Stroope. In July of 2016, Jeremiah was invited to attend the choral institute led by Dr. James Jordan, at Oxford University. There, he conducted the GRAMMY® nominated Williamson Voices in St. John the Evangelist Church on the campus of St. Stephen's House.

Jeremiah is a member of the voice faculty at Saginaw Valley State University, where he teaches applied voice, and voice classes to music majors and minors. As the instructor of the Voice/Keyboard Concentration at Saginaw Arts and Sciences Academy, Jeremiah's choirs performed as featured guests with numerous choirs throughout the state. His students study solo vocal and instrumental performance and continue to perform locally and statewide. Many of his students have been accepted to music schools throughout the Midwest, including the University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Bowling Green State University, Central Michigan University, Western Michigan University, and Columbia College-Chicago.

Jeremiah serves on the board of directors for the Michigan American Choral Directors Association and he is an active member of Chorus America.

TRUST COVENANT FOR SAFE EXTRAORDINARY CARE

For generations, the Great Lakes Bay Region has trusted Covenant HealthCare. We offer the region's most comprehensive care, and your health and safety are our top priorities. In fact, Covenant was recently awarded our sixth consecutive "A" rating for patient safety from The Leapfrog Group. Our focus on providing this kind of exceptional care has made us the region's most preferred hospital.

We live in unpredictable times. But you can count on Covenant to protect your health, just as we have for generations.

Improving Lives Through Mobility®

Throughout our 53 years in business, Amigo Mobility has weathered storms and been through challenges. We've learned that optimistic and hard working employees, constantly finding a better a way and strong relationships with our customers and suppliers can get us through anything – and that proved true during the past two years.

We've been able to continue shipping products to our customers, dispatching service providers, expand into a new building, hire more local talent, and even come out with a few new innovations.

We are proud to be a part of the Great Lakes Bay community, we'll be here for the next 50 years, and the next 50, and the next...
